

I urge you to oppose the vote on media consolidation in the interest of supporting the democratic ideals of this nation. Further consolidation would mean fewer voices with access to our media channels.